WXDU

88.7 & 90.7 FM

a Duke University Union committee

For the past decade, WXDU has served the Duke University and Triangle communities with the best in fresh, challenging new music. With over 70 volunteer DJ's from the University and surrounding area, WXDU features an incredibly diverse mix of shows. In addition, specialty shows and news and sports updates throughout the week promise something for everyone.

SPECIALTY SHOWS

Monday thru Saturday from 5-8pm, WXDU cruises into the evening with JAZZ shows ranging from traditional to cutting edge. For the newest picks of other musical genres, tune into Bryce Burkhart's RADIO NOUVEAU show from 8-11pm on Tuesdays, topped off with the Top Ten at Ten album countdown. If hip-hop is your thang, visit THE BASSMENT with James Heyward from 8-11pm on Mondays. You can find still more fly grooves during Ted Snyderman's CONCERTO IN X MINOR spot at the same time on Saturdays. Also on Saturdays, sample a rebellious mix from 9am-noon on Jeff Gold's YOU CAN'T DO THAT ON RADIO ANYMORE show. Stick around with Martin Smith until 2pm and chuckle off the pressures of the week during LAUGH TRACKS, followed by the progressive and New Age sounds of NEW FRONTIERS. Truck your way through the rest of the afternoon on Cornell Johnson's GOD DAMN BLUES TRAIN. From 9-11 on Sunday morning, join Tonya Schackner for the down-home sounds of COUNTRY & BLUEGRASS. Get your daily dose of JAZZ with Paul Jeffrey from 11am-2pm. Then scan the musical spectrum with the finest female artists on Kirsten Westcott's 2-5pm WOMEN IN MUSIC show. Let the infectious rhythm of Sister Sharon's 5-7pm INTERNATIONAL AND REGGAE show carry you to the sunny Caribbean and beyond. Continue to savor the multinational flavor with blues, folk, Cajun, and more from 7-10pm during Dave Tilley's BULL CITY COSMIC HOEDOWN, and finish off your weekend on a rollicking note.

NEWS AND SPORTS

Listen weekdays at 10am, noon, 2pm, and 5pm and let WXDU News connect you to the pulse of the nation. Voice your opinion about Duke topics from 10-11pm on Wednesdays on the call-in News Show with Catherine Conrad-Saydah. Following the news at 2 and 5, stay tuned for the latest sports updates. If you can't squeeze into Cameron, follow Blue Devil home basketball games with WXDU's live coverage. And avid sports fans won't want to miss Jim Young's call-in Sports Show from 10-11pm on Sundays.

WXDU PRESENTS LIVE MUSIC

If you'd like to match faces with the music you've been hearing over the air, you'll want to come by the Coffeehouse on East Campus for the WXDU Concert Series. Shows will be announced later in the semester, so watch for flyers on campus and around town. WXDU gives away tickets to shows at the Coffeehouse and elsewhere right up until showtime. For information about live shows all over the Triangle, listen for our Concert Calendar every day at 12:30, 4:30, and 8:30pm.
